

13 October 2008– Chongqing Qianneng Industry (Group) Co., Ltd Visit (Chongqing, China)

The top executives of JM Ecotech Solutions Co (Ecotech) recently conducted a plant visit to Chongqing Qianneng Industry (Grop) Co., Ltd, a world leader in oil purifying technology company. The company is a renowned manufacturer of innovative oil purifier machines currently used by cross global industrial companies from electric power, petroleum, recycling, chemical, metallurgy, mining, aviation, shipping, and railway sectors in almost 40 countries from Europe, America, and Southeast Asia.

This official trip to China was part of Ecotech's continuous effort to improve existing waste treatment facilities and provide only the best and innovative products and waste treatment services to the industrial market. As a result, the company has successfully brought in another technology for used oil recycling that will yield better quality reprocessed oil for reuse.
