OSHC's BOSH Training Plant Visit 2010

On the 18th of June, 2010, JM Ecotech Solutions Co. has been chosen once again to be the host company for the Actual Safety and Health Inspection activity of the recently held training on Basic Occupational Safety and Health for supervisors. This BOSH training was conducted to prospective safety practitioners from different companies and institutions.

Our TSD Facility accommodated fifty participants for the plant visit. They were divided into three groups namely the Environment, Safety and Health groups for the tour. Each group was accompanied by our Ecotech employees: Bernie Chua, Operations Manager (Environment); Jennifer Vergara, Pollution Control Officer (Safety) and Marshall Patilla, Account Executive (Health) to further explain the technology used by our company. Our Safety and Health programs were commended; feedbacks and comments for the proposed improvements were also gathered.

At the end of the activity, a certificate of Appreciation was given to our company's General Manager, Ms. Jenny Chua for her support extended to this year's participants.
